

Attention 78er Patriot,

We would like to have an outing together as a team. I know that movies can be somewhat controversial among Christians. However, the movie "Facing the Giants" is a wonderful film with an absolutely awesome and GODLY message. I have already viewed the film and will personally vouch for the movie content. Details of the movie can be found at: <http://www.facingthegiants.com/>

If you ever permit your son to go to a movie, this is the one to see. I would like for all team members that can make to it meet at this movie detailed below. This can be an awesome outing together as a team. Please feel free to call me for questions:
